[redacted]:Fantastic and charming house in the old town of Marbella. It is an original andalusian house, totally refurbished. A dream home ideal for the lovers of old stilled century homes With excellent finishes building, underfloor heating and air conditioning throughout the house, all doors and cabinets made of solid wood, all windows made of a high quality triple insulating camera, porcelain clay floors, wood beamed ceilings. Built on 3 levels has 3 bedrooms two with en suite bathroom and a toilet. A large family kitchen open to a cozy and elegant dining room. From a spacious entrance hall on the ground floor, climbs to the terrace through a beautiful staircase, which also has natural light through a large skylight. Once on the terrace of about 37 m2 you have a nice view of the Old Town and offers plenty of sunlight .Part of the terrace is covered by wooden pergolas where you can meet sheltered from the sun. Highly recommended viewing.
