Overview:Originally built as two separate penthouses, it now seems more like a house with seven different living areas. A combination of four completely equipped studios on the bottom floor and three apartments on the top floor with a total of 11 bedrooms and 9 bathrooms, total of 30 beds and 7 fully equipped kitchens. Perfectly located between the popular tourist town of Mijas Pueblo and the popular coastal town of Fuengirola, close to all amenities, Malaga Airport is only 25 minutes by car and you have walking distance to Fuengirolas shops and beaches. On the first floor when you enter the apartment there is spacious hall and living areas for relaxing on this floor you will find the 4 studios. On the second floor is there 3 fully equipped apartments, all with their own entrance and terrace. All the rooms have air conditioners and all the studios and the apartments sell furnished. This is a very good investment and perfect for those who want to work with rentals of tourist apartments, the standard of the apartments it´s also good for long term rentals with good income.
