Overview: A super apartment looking straight out to sea with coastal and beach views. From this apartment you can actually watch the waves breaking. The present owner has made lots of tasteful improvements to this property with glass on the terrace to make more of the location and extra storage space in the living area. This apartment was originally a two bedroom apartment, but the owner has changed it into a ONE BEDROOM unit. It can be changed back into a two bedroom apartment easily. The property is very modern and as it is on a corner it has a lot of windows. The owner can chill out on the terrace that feels like it is on top of the sea.
