Overview:Small authentic Andalusian Farm of 118m2 with 360º views, all the way to Sierra Nevada With very easy access, all asphalt and only 25 min. from Malaga to the house. Surrounded by nature is a legal urban farm on top of a hill. There are several constructions on almost 1-hectare land, including the old goat sheds of 420m2, which can be converted into construction, a small house / storage of 15m2 with only one room and a full bathroom, a studio with kitchenette, full bathroom and living room - separate bedroom behind the house principal. The main house has a beautiful wooden porch in a gazebo area with immense views, elongated dining room with a nice modern fireplace, lounge with gazebo, equipped kitchen with access to the terrace, with wood burning fireplace, two bedrooms and a bathroom . The part in front of the house is with a large terrace and a beautiful corridor towards the pool site. The construction pool unfortunately broke down, but the treatment plant is still there. The property has a 100L electric water heater, a 12,000L water tank and is fully fenced. There is plenty of room to park cars. For a time it has been a cottage home for vacationers. The distance to the center of Casabermeja is 3 KM. In Casabermeja and Colmenar, another town that is next door, there are all the services available. A unique and very romantic place. The dream of every foreigner and Spanish of course.
