Overview:A hundred-year-old house in a party of urban land pending horizontal division. The owners have paid the proportional part that corresponds to them for their house. Excellent location in the municipality of Mijas, bordering Fuengirola. It preserves the distribution of the houses of yesteryear, where you can enjoy the generous terraces and patios under the shade of the vineyards. Two farms are sold, one of them of 745 m2 where the house and garages are located and the continuous one of 155 m2 where the irrigated pool is located. Own path of entrance to the farm and cistern. Neighbor owns two plots, that they would like to sale as well, just in case someone need more size of land. Property with a lot of potential for those in love with nature and healthy life. Very competitive price.
