Overview:PRISTINE Townhouse . Recently reformed . Centre of the village . Large terrace . Open panoramic views . Shops and bars a short walk . Garage . Perfect BOLT HOLE property . Garden This recently reformed town house is bright and airy. The current owner has made the very most of the space, the property now has an open plan lounge dining room with a brand new kitchen. There are two two bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, again both recently re-decorated. The roof solarium has the most fantastic views over the village towards the mountains. There is also a small garden close by that belong to the property. Guaro is a modest white village, located on the edge of the Sierra de las Nieves natural park. Thanks to its elevated position, at over 350 metres above sea level, the village offers privileged views across the surrounding countryside. The area is known for producing almonds and olives, which is an important part of the local economy. Guaro has it ■s own olive mill, where locals have their harvests pressed. It is the ideal spot for outdoor lovers, which also offers a few famous cultural activities like the Luna Mora festival in September. Like many white villages in Andalucia, the village dates back to the Arabic occupation of Spain. Guaro is located 55 minutes (50 km) from the city of Málaga and the airport and the beaches of the Costa del Sol (Marbella) are only a 35 minute (24 km.) drive away!
