Overview: Boutique Hotel in Velez Málaga: Moroccan palace with interior garden/patio The origin of the property is located sometime in the 16th century and was built as a Moorish palace. The property was purchased in 2005. It was in poor but original condition. After going through all the requests and permits for the establishment of a hotel, the complete renovation started in 2007. Given that the property is located in the historic district of the city, it is also registered as such. Through a good cooperation of the former owner, a Spanish architect, and the municipality, a timeless hotel has been created with all the comfort you would expect from a contemporary hotel. But it breathes peace and feels like a fairy tale. The Hotel is located in the center of Velez Málaga with all amenities and many Tapas bars, restaurants, shops and theatre within walking distance of the Hotel. The beach with authentic chiringuitos and many Beach clubs lights up at 4.5 km. It's also 4.5 km to the golf club. Granada and the Sierra Nevada are in an hour distance, Malaga center and the airport at 25-35 minutes by car. The hotel has many regular guests from all corners of the world but mainly from the UK and NL. This is partly due to a BBC program that followed the family during the renovation and opening of the Hotel. This program is still sold and broadcasted all over the world, which still generates many requests and bookings. It is also rented as a private Hotel with a relationship file of companies with famous names and even some multinationals. The rooms are spacious with bathroom and walk-in shower. The rooms are all equipped with air conditioning/heating, satellite TV and Wi-Fi throughout the Hotel. The maximum number of guests is 22. Emergency lighting, fire detection system and other things are of course present. Everything with a final inspection in 2020 according to the latest regulations. Maintenance: in winter 2012 the entire hotel is newly painted.
