Overview:This sought after complex has well-kept gardens and a communal swimming pool as well as being just five minutes' drive to the beach and only a walking distance to shops, restaurants and all amenities. Only a walking distance to the Finnish school. The apartment has an open plan living and dining area leading to the private large terrace and garden with spectacular mountain views. The terrace has glazed armored glass windows and an unique fireplace. This terrace is more like an extended living room and it is cosy and warm also in the winter months. This apartment has been recently renovated. A fully fitted kitchen with separate utility area, master suite with access to the terrace, an other bedroom and a guest bathroom. Other features include fitted wardrobes throughout, stone floors, hot and cold air conditioning, underfloor heating, electric shutters, private parking and a store room. This well-kept beauty is a must-see. Book a viewing as soon as possible.
