Touring the villa from top to bottom, the roof terrace is where you will find your first of the outdoor entertainment areas. Complete with Jacuzzi and 2 fire pits both gas and wood burning. It is ideal for those warm summer evenings and cooler nights. The smell of the olive wood burning away whilst you take in what can only be described as spectacular views.....sipping on your favourite tipple would de-stress even the busiest of minds. Moving down to the next level you have an outdoor tv/chill out area located next to the Koi Carp pool. Here you will find the main entrance to the residence. On entering the villa you are welcomed into a luminous hallway with a feature window to the far end looking out to the coast and Benalmádena marina . Branching off, another passage leads to 4 en-suite double bedrooms. All are finished to the same high standard. Bathrooms are modern, fitted with walking showers and underfloor heating.
