Overview:This South facing 4 bedroom, 3 bathroom townhouse in Calypso Calahonda, has a bit of everything going for it to make a superb investment. The property benefits from good size rooms, various terraces, an interesting beamed annex in the roof the property, has sea views and is on located on a quiet, pretty street. Despite the property having its own private garage (with direct access from the house which is currently used as a games room) you would not need a car, being just a few minutes' walk to the beautiful Dona Lola beach resort, large supermarkets, restaurants, bars, fitness clubs, golf, and everything this busy little area has offer. With a little redecoration and modernisation, this 165m² property has great potential as a permanent residence, long term rental investment or ideal holiday home with its proximity to everything!
