Overview:Charming house/tower in Nagueles, within a consolidated urbanization and very close to Marbella centre. The house has four rooms divided in three floors. The living room on the first floor, kitchen and bathroom on the second floor, and bedroom on the third floor. The house is cared to the smallest detail, terracotta floors, wooden windows and few furniture but placed with an incredible taste and practicality, which gives it a bohemian chic air. A special house for a special lifestyle. From any point of the house and due to its height, there are breathtaking views of the sea and the Concha mountain. The urbanisation is gated, with a garden and two swimming pools. There is easy parking in the immediate vicinity of the urbanisation. The property apart from its magnificent location in one of the best areas of Marbella is unique for its originality of construction which gives it privacy and is a paradise for lovers of sea views.
