[redacted]:Luxury villa with stunning sea views from Torremuelle! Searching for stunning sea views, would you like to wake up to sunny morning and maybe watch a sailing competition with coffee in your hand from your living room or from your 200m2 terrace opening to all directions? This amazing villa from Costa del Sol is now at your fingertips. I don't know where to start to describe this home which is looking for new inhabitants; it is so delightful. From the residential floor, you have great views to the sea, you can enjoy the day from the sunrise to the sunset. Large glass doors open from the living- and dining room to the terrace where you have heated 10x5m private pool. The terrace is completely private. The house is built with high-quality; walls are double brick with thermal insulation in between, double glazed windows are german thermal glass and each bathroom has floor heating. Channeled air conditioning/heating gets also rid of the humidity of the autumn and winter. There is a gas fireplace downstairs and interior fireplace in the living room which you can turn on in the autumn to warm you up and improve the atmosphere. Friend of music turns on all the 34 speakers and enjoys relaxing music for example in the sauna. This house has been full of life and happiness; there has been large celebrations and even a band has fit to the bedroom terrace which opens towards the pool and sea. There are 3 orange trees in the garden which gives you 400-500 oranges a year and a lemon tree. There is also a 400 bottle wine cellar in the downstairs lounge. If you like the classical style, you may negotiate of the furniture such as the dinette commissioned and signed in Milan, hefty English leather sofas or real silk carpets. There is also a separate 1 bedroom,1 bathroom apartment with living room and open plan kitchen for the quests and garage for two cars.
