[redacted]:Beautiful charming villa located in the heart of Fuengirola. a short waling distance from the Paseo Maritimo, the Police, all kinds of restaurants, shops, supermarkets and schools. It has been completely renovated 10 years ago. When you enter you find a large, partially roofed terrace that has sun all year, ideal for barbecues and enjoy family and friends, Entering the house on the left side finds the renovated kitchen with the highest qualities and thinking to the last detail in comfort, since the dishwasher is at a height by hand, until it is an open space letting in the light from the windows that overlook the terrace making everyone's interaction flow in the same place. It also has a large living room that has a fireplace making this space cozy. They have an exit to the corridor that leads to the game room that has an independent exit, has its built-in cupboards as the rest of the house has tried to take advantage of all the space. This room can also function as a bedroom as it has a full bathroom next door. we also find on the first floor a laundry room with a very good size and a small patio. We then arrive at the part of the stairs that have been an Italian design, to go up to the second floor where the bedrooms are. The master bedroom has its dressing room, bathroom en suite and jacuzzi. All bedrooms have large windows that allow natural light always, fitted wardrobes and very good size. We go up to a dormer floor that has a distributor, a toilet and 2 independent areas with access to a small terrace. one is used as a library and the other as a small workshop-office. The possibilities with this house are many is very beautiful and thought of all the details better to visit it
