[redacted]:A sweeping driveway leads to this elegant villa situated in the privileged tranquil area of Monte Halcones, with five bedrooms this home boasts stunning uninterrupted panoramic views across the valley. Entering the villa one is drawn from the hall to the spectacular formal vaulted tall ceiling drawing room, with unique Juliet featured windows and an open working fireplace. The open plan design smoothly leads one to the formal dining area, continuing to the fully fitted kitchen with SMEG appliances and a breakfast bar and table. From the dining area and drawing room, the patio doors lead to a large covered terrace over-looking the manicured garden, charming lagoon style swimming pool and jacuzzi with a soothing sound of the flowing cascade. A spacious thatched gazebo sits in the corner overlooking the garden and boasts stunning views of the valley. In addition, the ground floor are two large bedroom en-suites, with private access to the gardens, a guest cloakroom and laundry room. On the first floor, one will find a gallery den overlooking the spacious formal drawing room. Also on this floor are large bedroom en-suite with a private terrace boasting sea views and the master bedroom which has fabulous vaulted ceilings, a dressing room, sauna and its own private terrace overlooking the garden and the breath-taking valley. An added bonus, is a private separate guest house can be found with a large living area, kitchen and bedroom en-suite, perfect for guests or staff and a three car garage.
