[redacted]:A jewel in Virginia. The most charming house in the whole of La Virginia. La Virginia is a small urbanisation built by the prestigious architect Donald Gray, winner of the Rafael Manzano prize for architecture, La Virginia has 68 houses forming a representation of a typical Andalusian village with its cobbled streets and alleys, squares, corners with water fountains, chapel, restaurant and shop. A dream place for lovers of authenticity. Just a stone's throw from the centre and 5 minutes from the beach. This villa is located in one of the most emblematic squares of Virginia. The house consists of two floors, on the ground floor there is a large living room with original fireplace and original floors. A second living room with office area and two toilets. The kitchen is semi-open to the large living room and has its own dining area. From this area there is access to the swimming pool and private patio. Patio with several sitting areas. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and two bathrooms all with antique Andalusian tiles. On the top floor there is a large bedroom with ensuite bathrooms and a private terrace. The house was renovated and decorated by the prestigious decorator Jean Pierre Martell. Many of the elements of the house are antiques such as doors, washbasins, etc. The house also has a car parking space, 5 minutes from the centre of Marbella and the beach.
