[redacted]:One of a kind! Wonderful very first line beach unit with direct sea views from most rooms! The terrace is of spectacular size. There is quality furniture throughout, included in the price, which has cost 60.000€. As you enter, your senses awaken from the blue of the sea and brightness of the unit, due to its south orientation. The apartment includes a large living and dining room, a kitchen with all the appliances, two double bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a HUGE terrace, from which all you hear are the waves. The owners have closed a small part of the terrace with glass curtains to eat outside winter time. There is direct sea and beach views from the entrance, living and dining room, kitchen, the main bedroom, and of course the terrace. The sought after gated urbanisation has well kept gardens, a large swimming pool, and direct beach access. The price comes with an underground private parking spot and a storage room. The sunsets are wonderful (see pictures). A must see!
