outside space combined with panoramic views this is the one. When you walk in on your left is the kitchen with utility room. There is a large living dining room with fireplace leading out onto the terrace. There is a semi spiral staircase up to the enormous roof terrace which has great potential for outside living. There are two really good size bedrooms. The master on the front with a en-suite bathroom and there is a second family shower room. The property comes with underground parking and storage. Easy viewing.
